Welcome to today's visitors Southampton for what must be one of the top games of the day.

Both the Saints and ourselves are looking for a place in the First Division next season and I hope today's game is one the fans will enjoy.

Down at The Dell in October, the result was a draw and I said at the time I thought we were fortunate to get the point.

But they all count and that is why the two points at stake today are so vital to both sides.

In recent weeks we have been hit by injuries and I don't agree with people who say we have been giving "nervous" performances.

The problem has been that the balance of the team has been upset due to changes being made through injuries and this should soon put itself right.

At Mansfield last Saturday we earned a 1—0 win and we are now putting ourselves in a position where other teams will find it very difficult to shift us.

But every game is an important one from now until the end of the season with the prize at stake a place in the premier grade.

Once the injuries have cleared up there should be a real battle for first team places. It will cause problems for me, but that is how I like it.

Ian Greaves

PETER WELLS (Goalkeeper). Joined the Club from Nottingham Forest midway through last season when Manager, Lawrie McMenemy had to sign a goalkeeper following an injury to Ian Turner. Quickly established himself as a keeper of real promise and became a firm favourite with The Dell crowd during his 32 senior appearances.

TED MacDOUGALL (Striker). This prolific goalscorer joined the club last season when he was delighted to move back to the South Coast, following Manager, Lawrie McMenemy, moving in to acquire his services from Norwich. Has scored 221 League goals in his career and topped the Saints scoring charts last season with 23 League goals from 36 games. Has been capped seven times for Scotland.

JOHN SHARPE (Striker). Comes from neighbouring Portsmouth and is another example of the Club's youth policy. Starting as an apprentice John has come up through 'the ranks' and when called upon for first team duty has done a more than competent job in the back line.

DAVID PEACH (Defender). Moved to The Dell from Gillingham in 1974. Has played 165 games for the Saints and has found the net on 25 occasions, including a penalty in the 1976 F.A. Cup Semi-Final, which ensured him of a Cup Final appearance. A full back who keeps improving, so much so, that he had the distinction last season of captaining the England Under 21 team as one of two allowable over-age players, and he also went with the full England squad on their South American tour.

STEVE WILLIAMS (Midfield). Another product of the club's youth policy. Came to The Dell via the club's London network and worked his way up to a first team place last season, when at only 19 years of age, he had a season to remember when he was selected for the England Under 21 team and was voted "Player of the Year" by the supporters who like many good judges see Steve as a player of immense potential.

CHRIS NICHOLL (Defender). A close season signing from Aston Villa where he captained them to a League Cup Final victory last season. An Eire International by parental qualification, Chris has had a remarkable run of success in helping teams to promotion and Southampton will be looking for a repeat performance.

MALCOLM WALDRON (Defender). A local lad who has come up through the Club's youth policy. Comes from nearby Bedhampton and made 41 senior appearances last season. A very perceptive player.

MICHAEL PICKERING (Defender). Another close season signing. It took £35,000 to see this young defender come South from Barnsley where he had been under the eye of several first division scouts for a considerable time. Strong and quick in tackle.

ALAN BALL (Midfield). Made the move to The Dell last season from Arsenal and made 28 appearances. Alan has played 72 times for England including the memorable World Cup success in 1966. A dedicated professional, Alan has the ability to lift players around him and was an automatic choice as skipper when he joined the club.

PHIL BOYER (Striker). Saints most recent acquisition. Joined from Norwich just prior to the season starting. Renews a partnership with Ted MacDougall which produced a fine understanding and many goals during their careers at York, Bournemouth and Norwich. An aggressive front player who has captured the eye enough to have an England Cap to show for his efforts.

MANNY ANDRUSZEWSKI (Defender). Came to prominence last season when he established a first team place with 21 outings to his credit, only to have his progress temporarily halted by a knee operation. Born locally at Eastleigh of Polish parents. Manny can play at either back or full back and his aggressive non-stop action is a feature of his play.

Today's Visitors

A magnificent run of results over the Christmas and New Year holiday, continuing into February, put Southampton right back on target for promotion. Along with ourselves and Spurs, the Saints have looked a good bet all season though they are well aware that a serious slip now could let Brighton in.

If Southampton do regain the First Division place they lost in 1974 they will have achieved their objective in spite of selling TWO England forwards.

It was inevitable that Mike Channon would leave when the Saints failed to hit their First Division target last season and he eventually departed to Manchester City for £300,000. Manager Lawrie McMenemy spent less than half that amount — some £125,000 in fact — to sign Norwich City's England forward Phil Boyer as Channon's replacement.

The idea was to bring together that old scoring duo of Boyer and Ted MacDougall who had set the world alight earlier with their scoring feats at Bournemouth.

But when Peter Osgood decided to quit English football, to finish his career in U.S. soccer, the manager decided against going into the market again. Instead, he switched tactics from 4—3—3 to 4—4—2.

Whereas Boyer, MacDougall and Osgood had formed the attack for the first half of the season, he left Boyer and MacDougall as the strikers and drafted in an extra midfield man.

Alan Ball, who continues to play with the exuberance he showed when helping England to win the World Cup in 1966, is the Saints' driving force in midfield.

The Saints' defence this season included two newcomers in the centre — Irish international Chris Nicholl, signed from Aston Villa for £90,000, and Mike Pickering, a youngster signed from Barnsley for £35,000.

Malcolm Waldron and David Peach are normally the full-backs. Peach has become Southampton's dead-eye Dick with penalty kicks, with a long string of successful spot kicks behind him. He has converted six this season.

Another possibility in defence is Manny Andruszewski.

Some question marks surround the goalkeeping position since the recent arrival of Terry Gennoe from Halifax for £40,000. Ian Turner had a little earlier regained the position from Peter Wells, the former Nottingham Forest goalkeeper.

Mr. McMenemy had no hesitation in calling up several of his youngsters when he was hit by injuries or suspensions. Graham Baker and Steve Neville both repaid their manager's confidence by netting their first League goals while Trevor Hebbard, who had a few runs in the side last season, also found the target.

It was in 1974 that Southampton lost their First Division place after a dramatic collapse in the second half of the season. The manager's only real objective since then has been to get back into Division One.

Winning the F.A. Cup in 1976 was a wonderful bonus — and an occasion that will forever live with him — yet, in a way, it was a hindrance to his main ambition.

After the glamour of Wembley his players found it very difficult to play against run-of-the-mill teams in front of small attendances. Indeed, it could be said that the Saints forfeited promotion last season because of inferior results against lowly teams.

Today there is more steel in the Saints' side. They go into each match with a special determination to succeed and the defence is less liable these days to give away silly goals.

Mr. McMenemy did express some annoyance at the way his side forfeited a 2-0 advantage against us at The Dell in October. The Saints were well on top with goals from Nicky Holmes and Phil Boyer with less than half-an-hour to go.

But Frank Worthington and Willie Morgan effected a late recovery to earn us a point.
